

TROJAN 84

For some 1984 was just another passing year, yet for others it was a story book romance of everlasting friendships and memories. As we flip through the pages of our yearbook we will relive the past year through the tales and photographs of people we care for. Because each and every one of us contributed something to life in Post Falls High School last year, we are the main characters of this publication. Our fun and games, along with our trials and tribulations, will linger for all eternity on these pages. This story tells of the achievements on Post Falls High School's journey to reach the top—to become the best in academics, sports, activities and life.

*High school is a portal through which we pass
Making friends and memories which were meant to last.*

*Our stepping stones of knowledge will never end
If through our ups and downs we can count on a friend.*

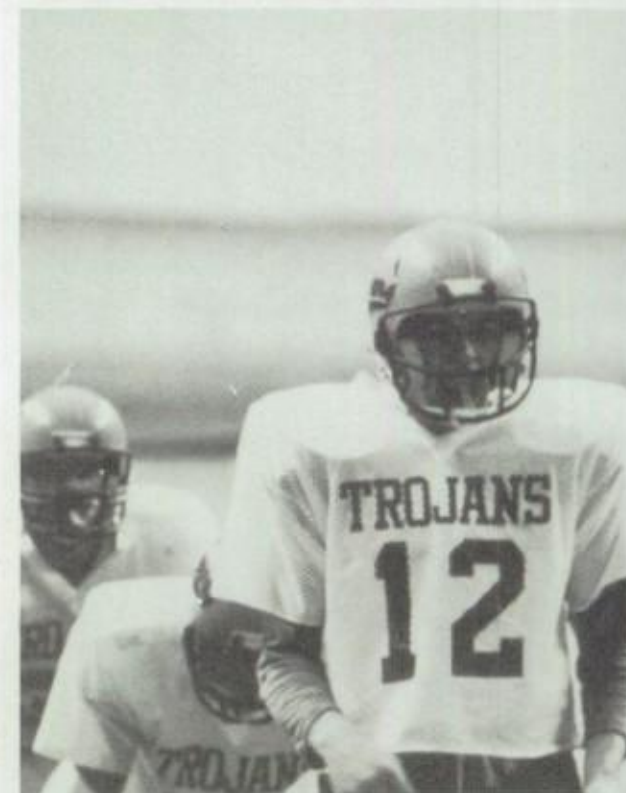

*Through life's journey strive for the best-
Reach for the top; don't settle for less.*

STUDENT LIFE

PARADE, CORONATION

HIGHLIGHT HOMECOMING

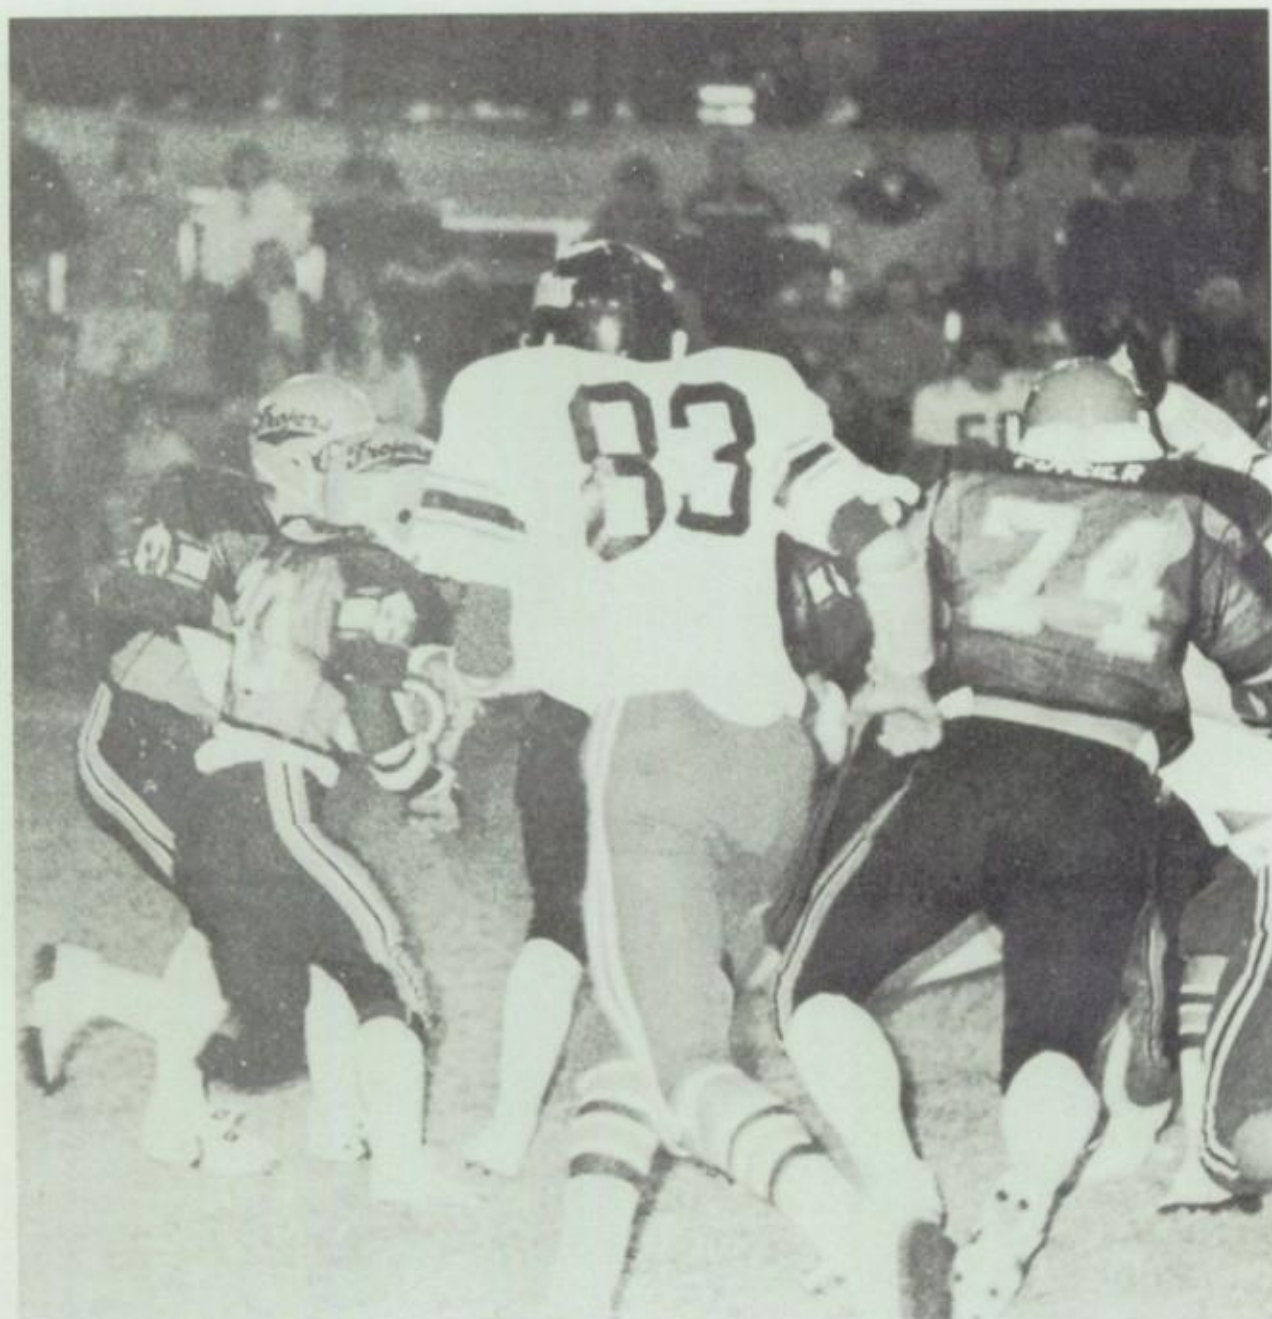

Entertainment during half time of the football game began with a duo performance by the drill team and flag team to "Eye of the Tiger." This presentation was the prelude to the coronations of Queen Dawn Ledbetter and King Dan Sheldon. Their court included Pam Shuck and Rollin Putzier, Tammi Walker and Kevin Peterson, Janae Bell and Mike Valente, Lori Garner and Joe Tofflemire, Kim Edwards and Danny Young. The Trojans were defeated by the Wallace Miners 14-20. The cheerleaders sponsored a dance to end the night on a happier note.

FALL HOMECOMING-A

SPIRIT FILLED WEEK

Homecoming week activities included western, pajama, opposite sex, 50's, and orange and black dress up days; powderpuff football; pie eating contest; and the bed race. The seniors won every competition except powderpuff football, which went to the juniors. Homecoming day included a pep assembly and the revival of the Trojan Homecoming Parade.

ASSEMBLIES from ROCK to CLASSICS

Freedom Jam, a pro-peace rock band, presented an American Heritage program at Post Falls High School. Their successful assembly presentation led to an evening performance for the public.

Other student assemblies included a preview of the bands' fall concert and some selections from the Troubadors.

CONCERTS FILL YEAR WITH MUSIC

"Prelude to Winter" was the November concert in which Stage Band, Symphonic Band, and Concert Band performed their music for an appreciative audience of parents and friends.

The annual Old Songs' concert presented in October was a success for the Post Falls Choral Department. Their audience enjoyed juicy barbecue chicken from the Longhorn Restaurant while they reminisced with the choir and the Troubadors.

MEMORABLE YEAR for

Wataru Kambayashi-Japan
Vivian Lee-Hong Kong
Francisco Arias-Columbia
Vesna Karovic-Yugoslavia
Kristina Segler-West Germany

Hi, I'm Francisco Arias and I'm 17, and I come from Columbia, South America.

I got here last summer and saw Post Falls and I thought it was going to be boring, but when I met some people I changed my mind and I saw really how nice people around here are, especially with all the friends who helped me a lot through my time here. I'm really going to miss Post Falls and all its people, and especially the friendship shared with everyone I met. Thanks a lot.

Amor y Amistad
Francisco

My name is Kristina Segler and I'm from West Germany. Before I came here, living in the U.S.A. seemed to be something so big, impossible, unbelievable. Now I'm really here and it seems like I've always been here, even though America is a lot different from what I thought it would be like. I found a second home here in Post Falls.

P.F.H.S. is nice with friendly people and its great spirit. I'll always remember my time here because it had a big influence on my life and my opinions. Thanks a lot to everybody.

Alles Gute für Euch,
Kristina

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

My name is Vesna Karović. I'm from Belgrade, the capital of Yugoslavia. I have to say that this year in U.S. means turning point in my life. First time I'm without my family and friends, and it was hard, unusual and exciting but now is much easier. I really like PFHS and I'm delighted with its spirit. All of you are very nice, kind people, and I'll miss you a lot. Maybe I'm selfish if I say that I'd like to see Post Falls as beautiful as it is now when I come back.

Vesna Karović

Months slip by so quickly; I really don't want to say goodbye to P.F.H.S. The nine months I've spent with P.F.H.S. are the most valuable and memorable period in my life. At first, I would never expect that I could adapt to this new environment so easily. But with the warm, friendly people who always are willing to give help, I never feel alone or isolated, I really can't tell how much I've learned and I'll miss. But one thing I'm sure-all the sweet memories that P.F.H.S. has given me will never fade away from my mind.

Yours,
Vivian Lee

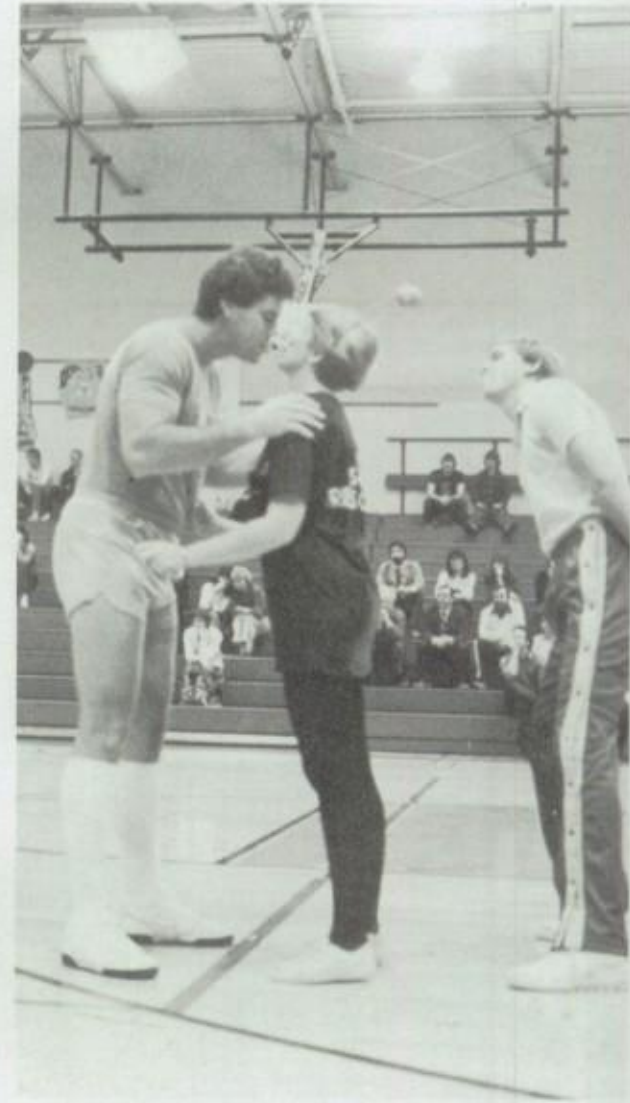

My name is Wataru Kambayashi; I'm 16 years old. I'm from Japan. I would like to thank you for allowing me to stay in Post Falls a year with friends and teachers and everything. At first it was difficult to stay here because school system is different. In Japan we have classroom, so we don't have to move during break. It was busy for me to move class during 5 minute break. But now I'm used to it. I'm sure I was enjoying my visit with this school and it will be a memorable experience for me to always remember.

Thanks again,
Wataru Kambayashi

ASSEMBLIES PROMOTE COMPETITION

Juniors won this year's Crazy Olympics, closely followed by the seniors. In this competition, sponsored by the National Honor Society, the event requiring the most concentration was the obstacle course, the only event won by the faculty.

During each sport season the students showed their support for PFHS athletes at spirited pep assemblies. The cheerleaders and Bleacher Bums built pyramids and led cheers and the school fight song, and classes earned trophy points with competitive yells. In one assembly Dan Sheldon received his "1000 yard" football.(1)

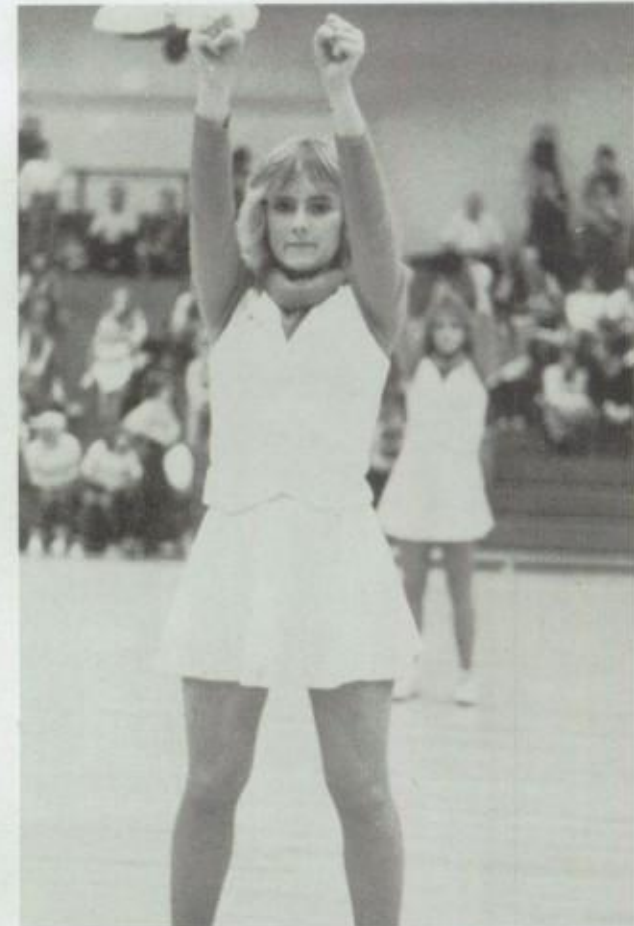

COMPETITION HIGH at ASSEMBLIES

The senior/faculty basketball game and the Crazy Olympics, both held in March, prompted a large turnout from the student body. Seniors dominated both events; they defeated the faculty by one point because of a three-point basket shot by Mike Frislie and during the Crazy Olympics they won every event except the rebound.

STUDENTS FILL WINTER

Winter Homecoming week brought much spirit to the students of PFHS. A fun filled tourist day started a week during which the students dressed up as their favorite teachers and as old-timers. Career day and black and orange day finished off the week. The senior class won the boys' volleyball competition, and on Friday the cheerleaders organized a pep assembly to "psych up" for the game and announce the homecoming court.

During halftime of the varsity game, the combined drill team and flag team performed to "Roman Opener." The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Queen Cammy Blankenship and King Scott Johnston. Even though the Trojans lost to the St. Maries Lumberjacks, the dance sponsored by NHS was a successful ending to an exciting week.

YEAR ENDS with MANY ACTIVITIES

Extravaganza time for the Trojanettes came April 19; this talent-filled show featured the drill team, with special entertainment provided by the flag team, LeStar twirlers, gymnasts, and PFHS bands.

Candidates for student body offices spoke during the May 16 talent show, and the students voted at noon. Mike Hoyt won the president's job; Geoff Kohles was voted in as vice-president; and Marc Williams filled the secretary-treasurer's slot.

During the last week of school, appreciative students proclaimed May 25 as Mac-Man Day in honor of retiring social studies teacher Elmer MacFarland. Cut-outs, posters, and streamers decorated his room.

SPRING CONCERTS HONOR SENIORS

Instrumental music presented their traditional concert dedicated to the seniors on May 15. Symphonic Band, Concert Band, and Stage Band each performed several numbers, with student teacher Mark Mills conducting one number for each group. Vocal music's annual concert was an elaborate production including choruses from all the Post Falls public schools. After each group's performance, awards were announced. Hugs and tears attested to the warm feelings these groups had for each other and their director Pat Koehler. The finale was a special arrangement of "Down by the Riverside" sung by the entire group—6th grades, junior high, and high school.

SHOWS DISPLAY VOCAL TALENT

Chorale produced their musical "Shes at Sea" during April. This amusing, light-hearted comedy featured outstanding singers from the vocal music program in the lead roles. The assembly performance was well received by the student body.

Host of the 2nd annual talent show, Mr. Cossette, kept the program moving with humorous comments. The entertainment consisted of some very talented singers, speeches from the ASB candidates, and the 1984-85 cheerleaders' dance routine. The troubadours added class to the show with a few of their favorite numbers.

MEMORIES OF LLOYD SELLERS

THERE HE WAS SO HAPPY, SO FREE,
LIVING LIFE TO THE FULLEST
AS SEEN BY YOU AND ME.

THERE HE WAS SO CALM, SO SERENE:
WE WONDER NOW
WHAT WAS HIS DEEPEST DREAM?

HOW LANGUID WE ARE WITHOUT HIM:
TRIBULATION FILLS OUR HEARTS,
BUT STILL INSIDE
HE'LL ALWAYS BE A VERY SPECIAL PART.

IT DOESN'T SEEM FAIR TO HAVE HIM GONE,
THE DESPAIRING PAIN
EVER SO STRONG.

HE TAUGHT US SO MUCH ABOUT ONE ANOTHER;
TO EACH AND EVERY ONE
HE FELT LIKE A BROTHER.

HIS WAY WITH CHILDREN
COULD NEVER BE REPLACED;
HIS WAY OF CARING
TOOK UP SUCH A LARGE SPACE.

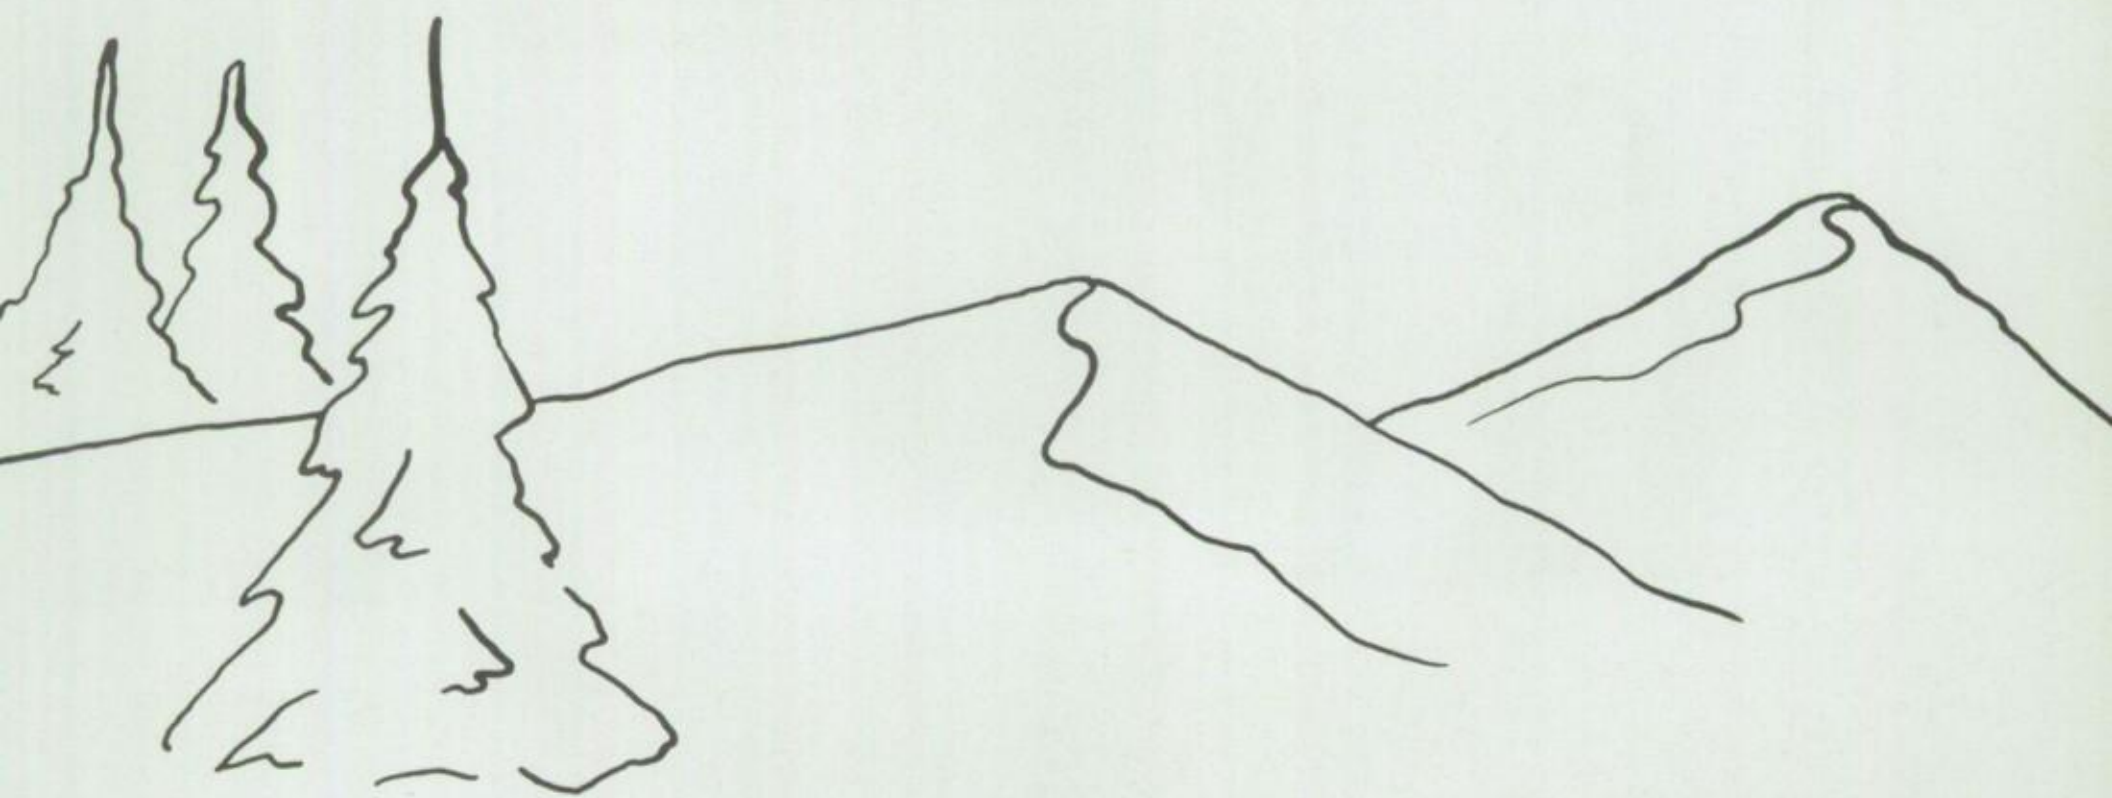

HE TAUGHT US TO LIVE, LOVE, AND BE HAPPY:

WE LIVED WITH HIM:
WE LOVED WITH HIM:
WE WERE HAPPY WITH HIM.

NOW THAT HE'S GONE
WE WONDER WHAT COULD HAVE BEEN.
WE WILL LOVE LLOYD FOREVER
IN OUR FONDEST MEMORIES OF HIM.

SENIORS

'84 OFFICERS ORGANIZE SENIOR EVENTS

Senior class officers must uphold their duties to ensure their fellow classmates a successful and fun year. These duties consisted of supervising the candy bar sales; this major fund raiser earned approximately $2000. The officers also attended Student Council meetings to represent the entire senior class and to do the best they could to make the senior year the best.

Probably the most important projects for the seniors were organizing music, pictures, site, decorations, etc., for the prom and making arrangements for the graduation ceremonies.

A NIGHT TO SHINE

at the DAVENPORT

1984 seniors broke the tradition of decorating the high school gym for their senior prom, choosing instead to make use of the lobby of the gracious Davenport Hotel. The ornate Victorian architecture made April 28 truly "a night to shine." Reigning as King and Queen were Kevin Peterson and Tammi Walker.

1984 GRADUATES

Commencement exercises began with a procession of graduates accompanied by the PFHS band, after which Rev. Paul Ledbetter gave the invocation. In the commencement address, Superintendent James Todd asked the seniors to give something to the world which has given so much to them; Valedictorian Dawn Ledbetter and co-Salutatorians Brenda Bryan, Eric Carlson, Kelli Kast, and Steven Vorseth all bid their fellow students good-bye and wished them luck. Roy Murrell and the PFHS Chorale sang before the graduates received their diplomas and were presented with lavender and white roses by Mr. Elmer MacFarland and Senior Class Advisor Mrs. Gladys Kosty. Ending the program was a vocal solo by Senior Class President Kevin Peterson. After the benediction by Pastor George Scantlan, the Class of '84 left, hoping to do justice to their motto, "We have grown so much, and yet, we will grow forever."

REACH for the TOP

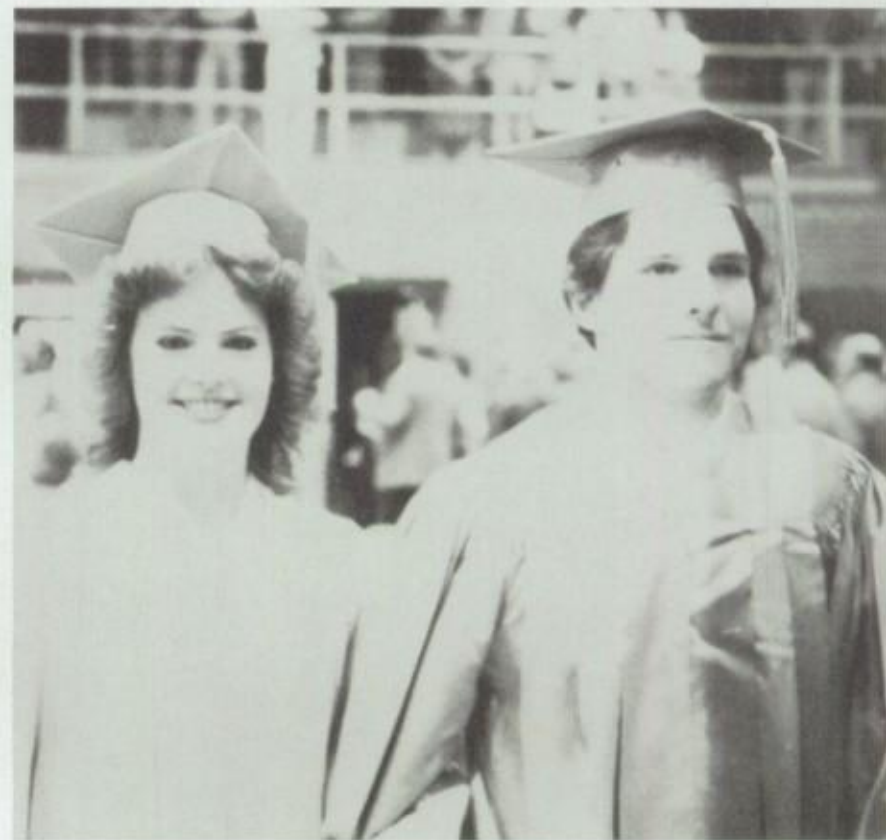

Creating our own futures
Living through our pasts
Another year of you
Silently passed
Sounds of our own laughter.

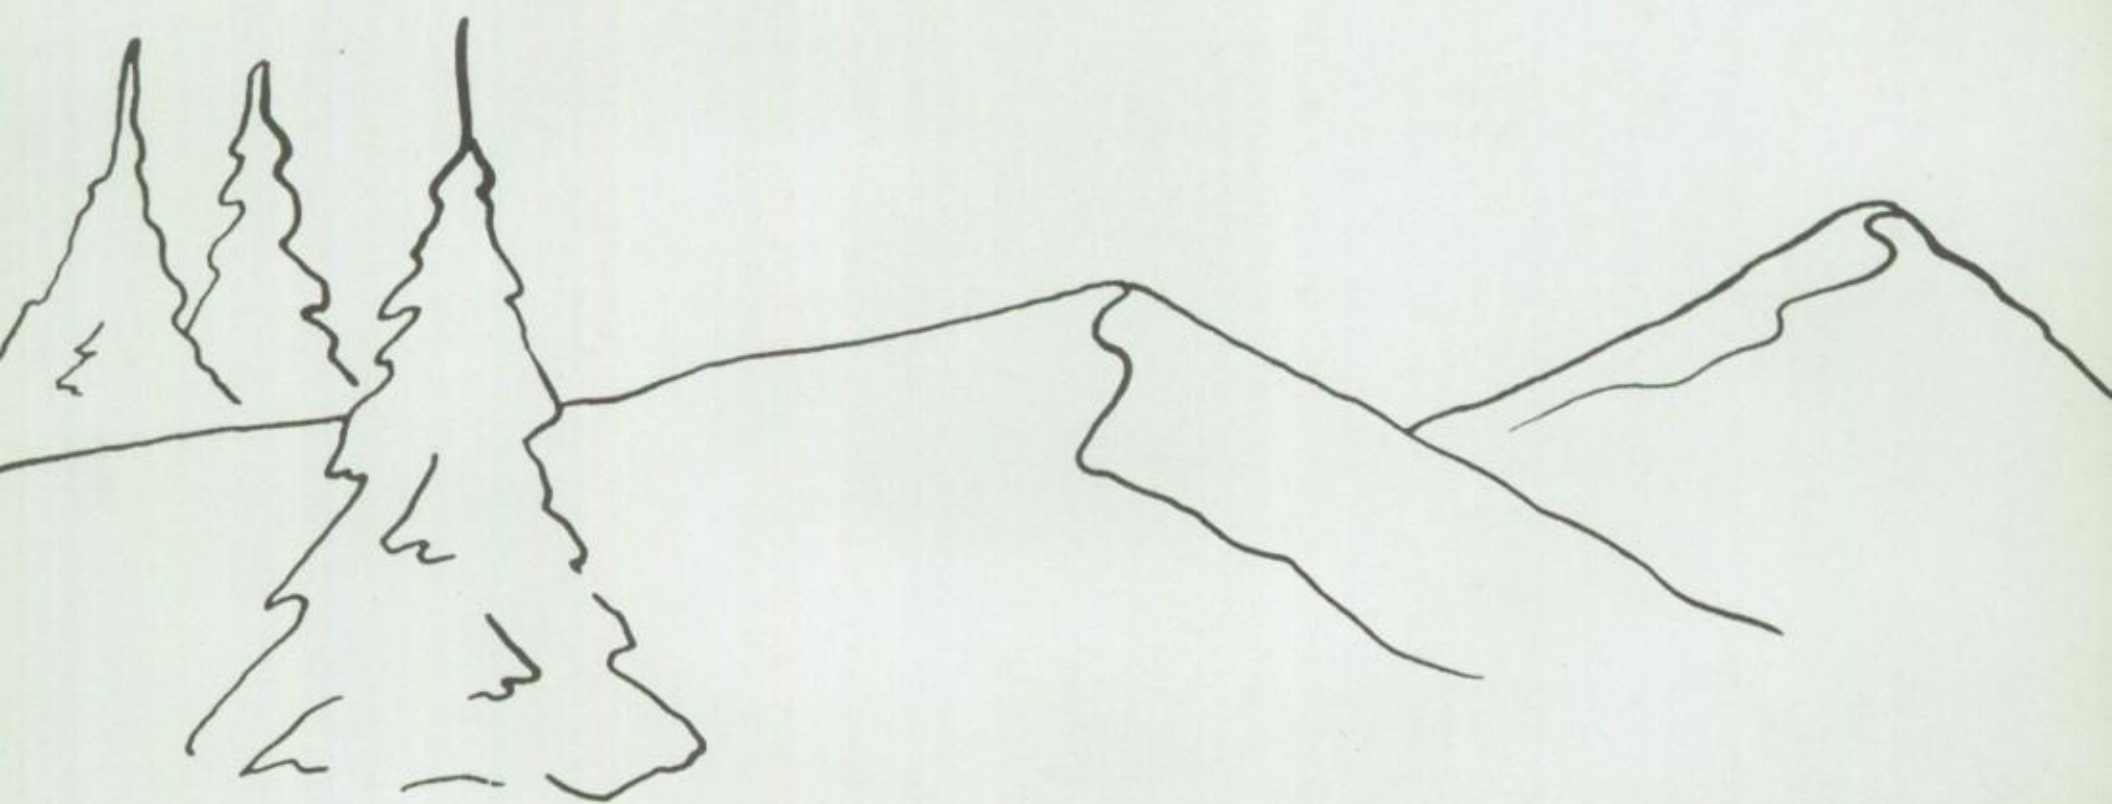

Our need 'to be'
Fighting to stay together.

Eager to be free,
Imbedded within our minds
Growing each day;
Happy and sad times
Tucked away.
Young souls demand more.

Friends forever
Our unending need for love
Unwilling, never.
Remember, the Class of Eighty-four.

Powderpuff football championship during fall spirit week was the first victory for the juniors. They continued with a first place in the Winter Crazy Olympics and a second in the Spring Crazy Olympics. The Class of '85 also added to their fund by co-sponsoring the Visions of Summer dance.

A FEW SHORT YEARS

'I am a junior now,' I heard myself say,
But my mind kept thinking, 'Not now, surely not today?'
For only yesterday I was starting high school;
Trying to adjust to the kids in my new social pool.
And now we have grown together and shared many tears.
How could there be so little time—only a few short years?
We realize too late that this is the best of our lives;
Our graduation will cut us apart with unmerciful knives.
Ironically we continue as if it will never come to an end,
And one sad day we'll say, 'Goodbye, PFHS, you were truly a friend.'

THE DAYS GO BY

The days go by, one by one,
and it seems as though we'll never be done with homework and tests and all the rest.
The seniors rush; and as they leave, their problems of the past we receive.

We will wait;
the days will pass,
every year, just a little more fast.

FRIENDS

Friends are like time,
 How they last through the years;
 through the fun times and sunshine,
 Even through the tears.
 When the good times are few
 And there isn't much fun, A friend's always there
 'Til the hard times are done.
 So when school is over,
 And the world's got you down,
 Remember a friend
 And get rid of the frown.
 Though they're not around,
 Forever will they be,
 In memories you hold,
 Ever flowing like the sea.

REACHING FOR THE SKY

The goals at Post Falls High
Are tops; they touch the sky.
It seems the other teams
Do scream and cry
'Cause we, the Trojans, reach our goals.
At Post Falls High.

The Pep Club plays an all-important role.
With all their yells and cheers
They seem to cause the teams to have no fears.
They really seem to have much fun;
That's what makes the Trojans number one!

TROJANS RUSH to PLAYOFFS

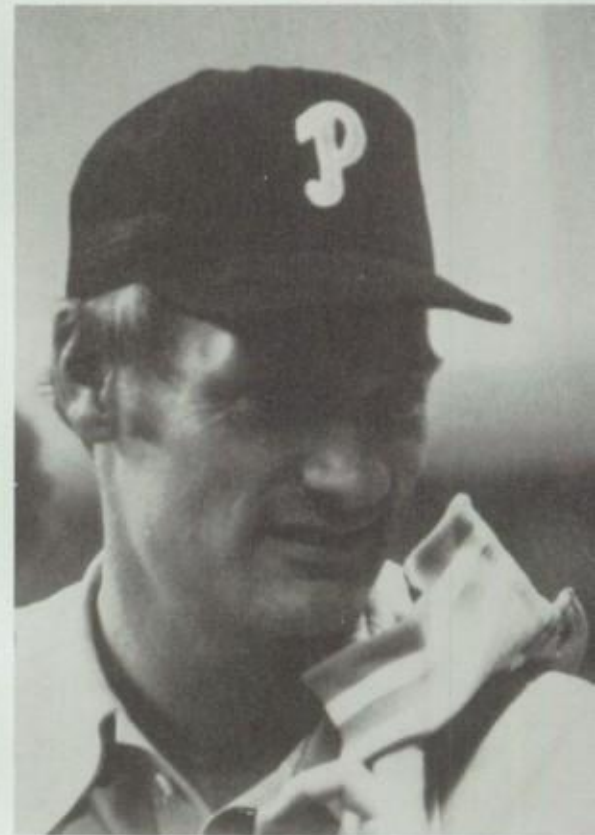

Post Falls Wins Many Honors

Trojan football 1983 began poorly with two non-league losses and a season-ending injury for senior quarterback Mike Valente. Despite these setbacks, team spirit and Trojan pride helped keep Post Falls on the winning side of the scoreboard, except for a one-touchdown loss to Wallace, and earned them a berth in the state quarterfinals and a 6 win - 4 loss record. At the end of the season two outstanding individuals earned IML honors: Dan Sheldon was named Offensive Player of the Year, and Rollin Putzier received Defensive Player of the Year. Even greater triumphs were recorded when Rollin Putzier was awarded A-2 State Defensive Player of the Year and Joe Tofflemire was named Offensive Player of the Year. Both these mighty Trojans were actively recruited by many colleges; Joe decided on Arizona State and Rollin on Oregon State University.

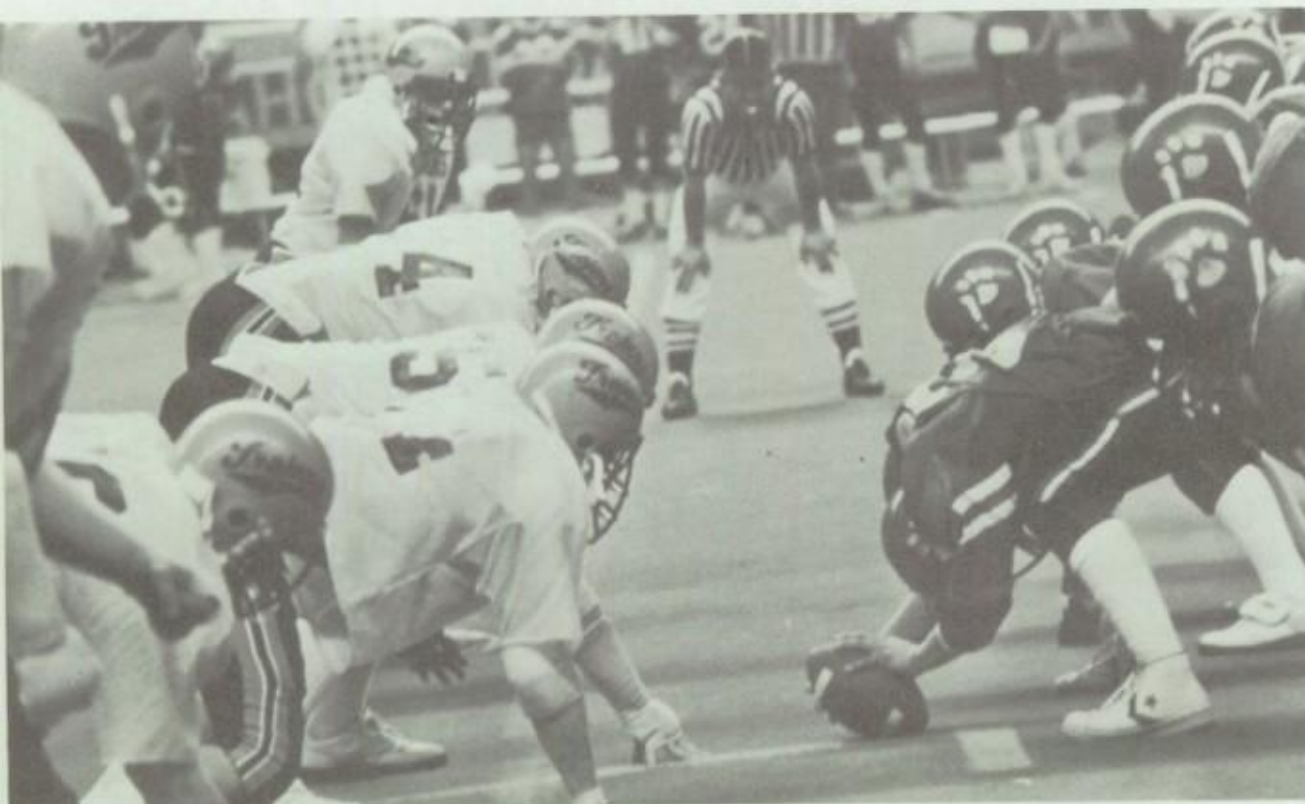

Sheldon joins 1000 yard club

Another asset to the 1983 Trojan football team was senior running back Dan Sheldon. In spite of several apparently serious injuries he rushed for a season total of 1,190 yards.

BIG WINS in 1983

Hope you enjoy this special year it's a good one

The 1983 JV football season was one of many changes and accomplishments. For the first time in three years the JV's were victorious over Wallace, defeating the Miners 21 to 7. The team finished the year with winning records: 5-1 in league and 5-3 overall.

FROSH RUN WILD

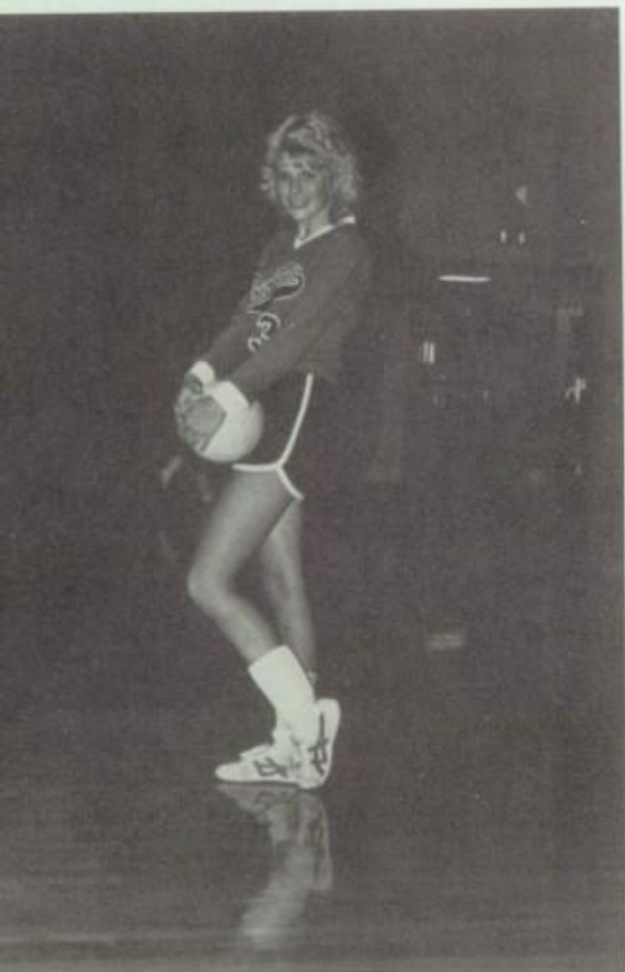

The 1983 freshman football team ran its way to a 2 win—3 loss season.

Led by the talented running of Tony Nagle, the young Trojans showed developing talent under the direction of Coach Jack Daniell.

THIRD YEAR FAILS to CHARM

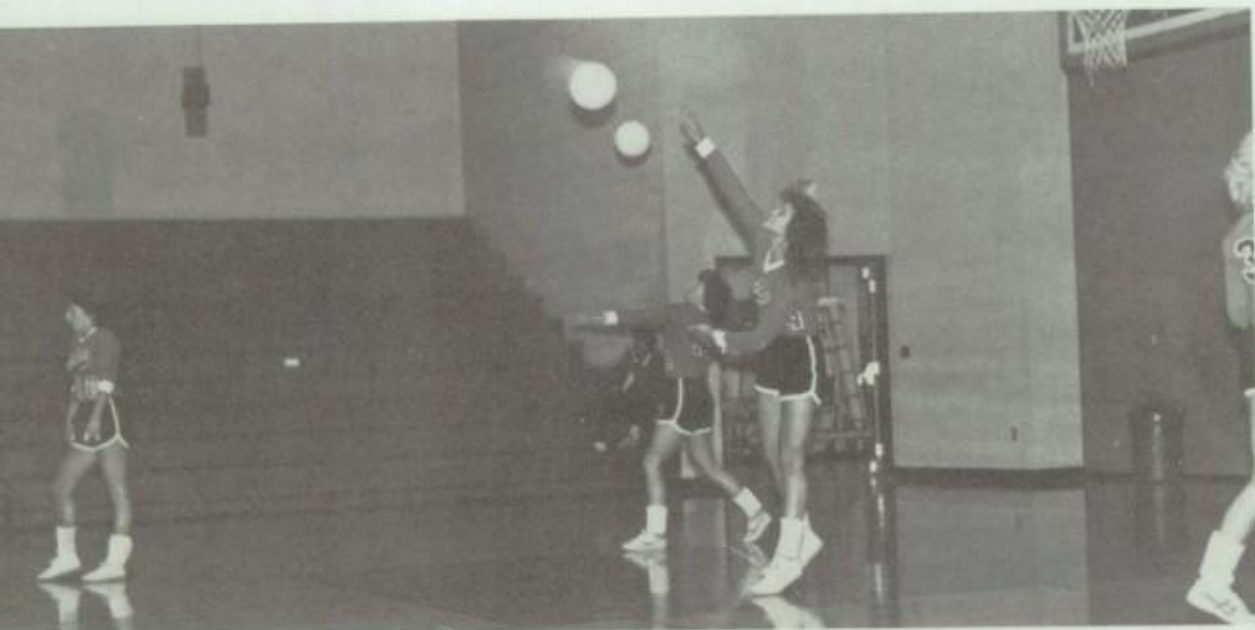

For the third year in a row the Post Falls Trojans finished the season second to the St. Maries Lumberjacks. Despite this, the season was highlighted by battling the Sandpoint Bulldogs, the A-1 state champions, to within two points.

The 1983 girls' volleyball team lived up to an eight year tradition by posting another winning season - thirteen wins and ten losses. A mid-season loss against Priest River roused the ire of the Trojans and sparked a winning streak leading into the district tournament. Although this year's team was young and inexperienced, they won second place at district, led by the lone senior on the team, Jamie Floch. However, a change in the state format denied the Trojans a trip to state.

The junior varsity volleyball team, composed entirely of sophomores, fought a tough schedule to finish with seven wins and eleven losses. This young team faired well in league games and showed a vast improvement throughout the year, as demonstrated by winning three of their last four games.

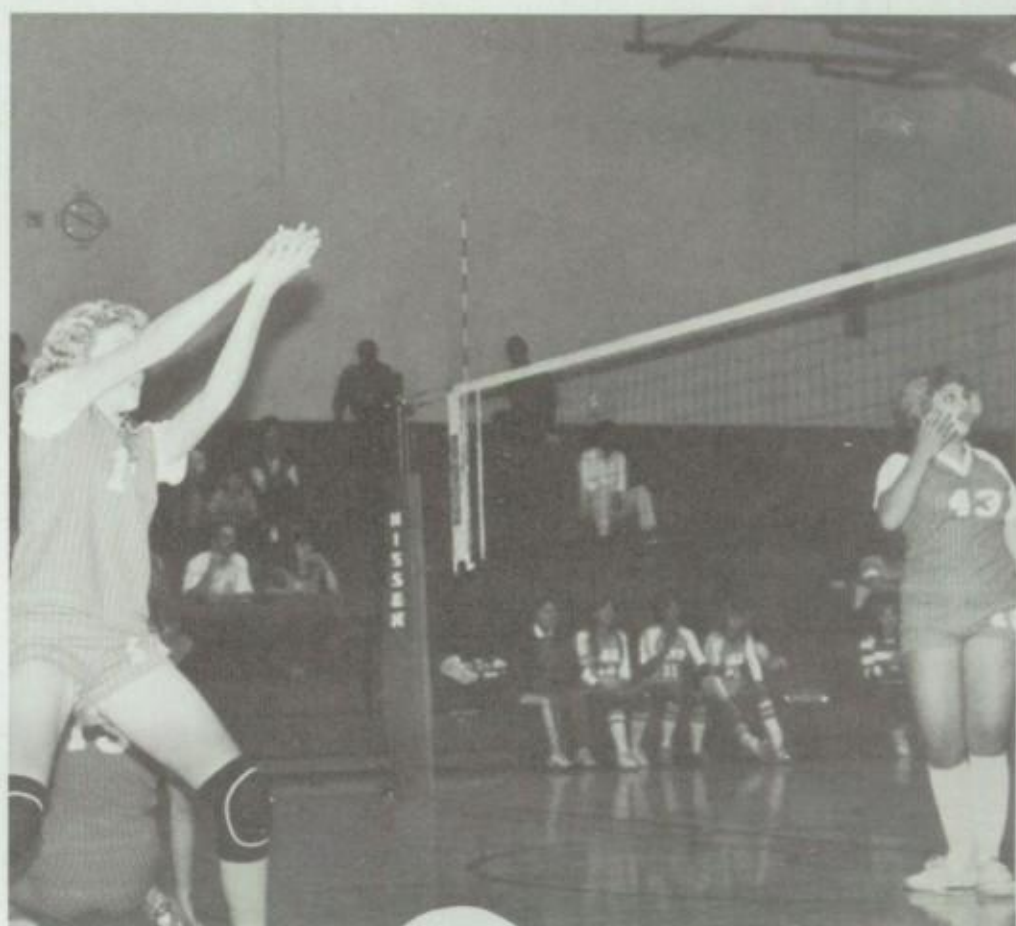

FROSH SERVE UP A WINNING SEASON

The freshman volleyball team gained valuable experience on their way to a 7-4 record during the 1983 season. The girls had a "fun time" as they began developing the skills they would use. They finished the season on a high note, winning their last four games.

Varsity cross country was initiated this year as an alternative to volleyball and football. The dedicated runners and their new coach Sue Ledbetter gained valuable experience during a year that proved quite successful. The girls' team earned third at the district meet and the boys placed second and went on to run at the state meet held in Boise.

to the MATS

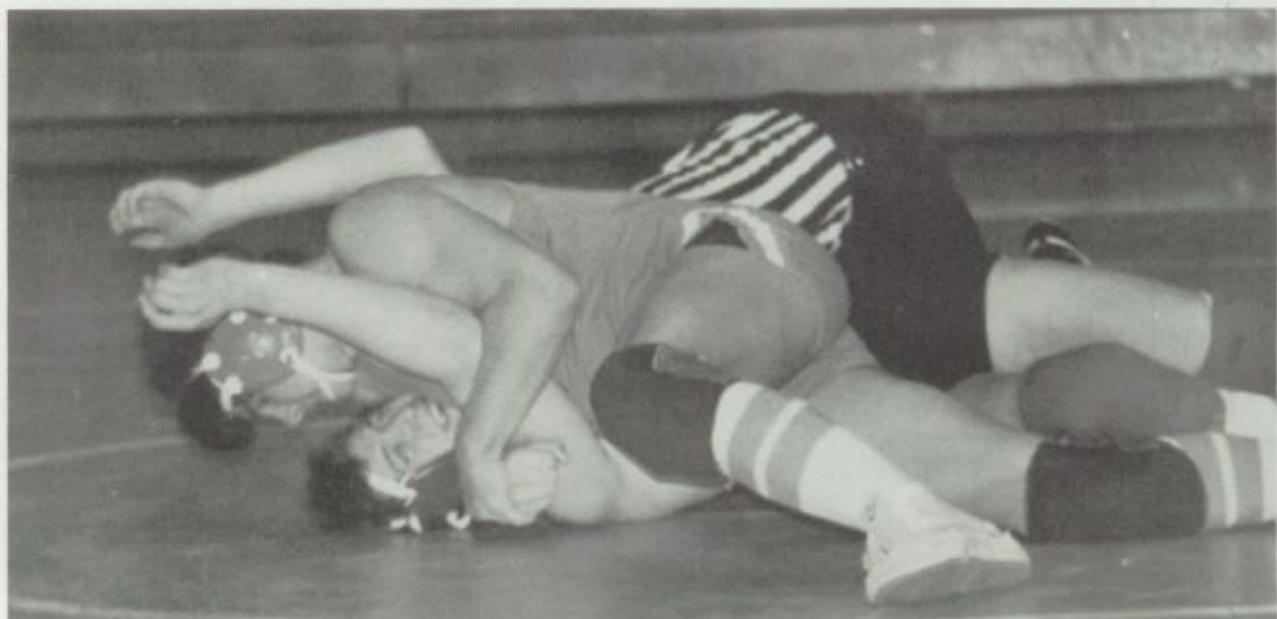

The 1983-84 Trojan wrestlers reached a high plateau of performance during the season. The team competed in high-class and competitive tournaments at Dillon, Montana; NIC; St. Maries; and Lakeland and represented Post Falls well. The Trojans were a young and inexperienced team; however, they wrestled their way to a 3-3 season record. Some wrestlers stood out throughout the season—Senior Kevin Snider finished with a 15-3 record, and Greg Schamens (98), Joe Vara (117), Eric Carlson (145), and Chris Hildebrandt (185) qualified for the state championships held in Pocatello. Sophomore Joe Vara earned a 4th place finish at the state tournament.

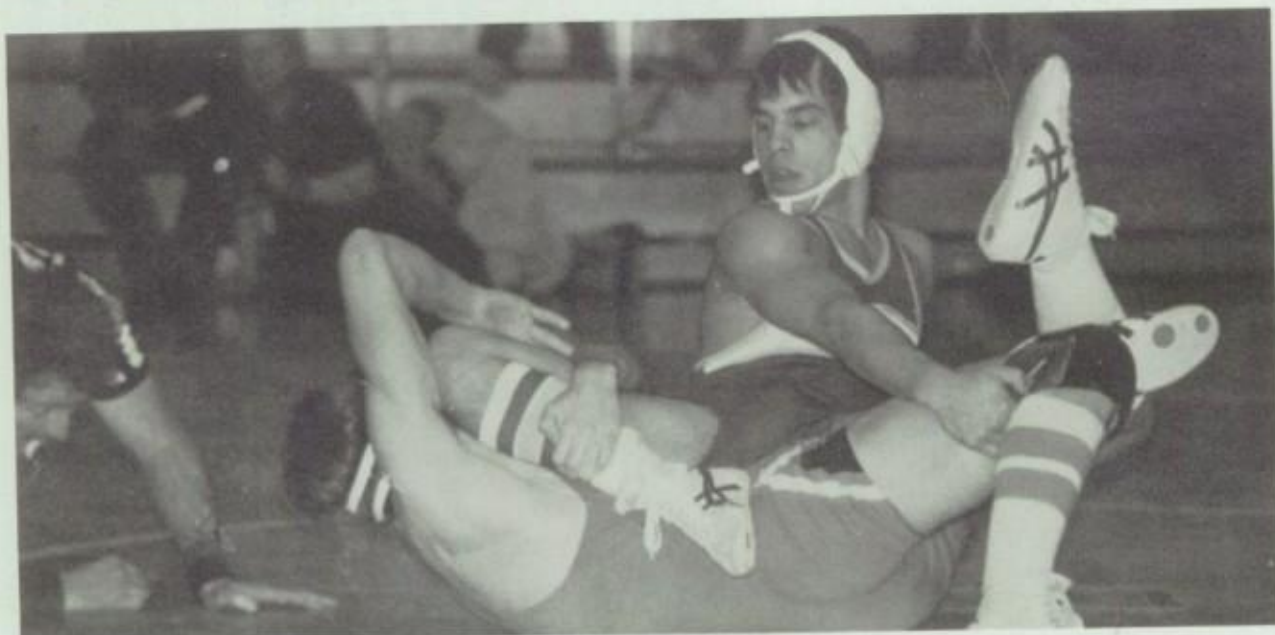

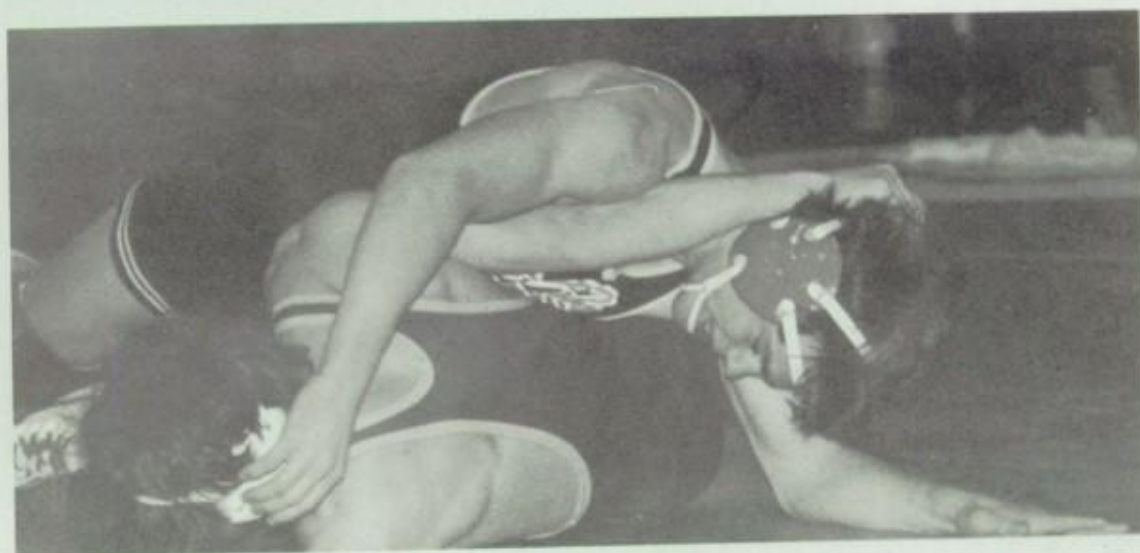

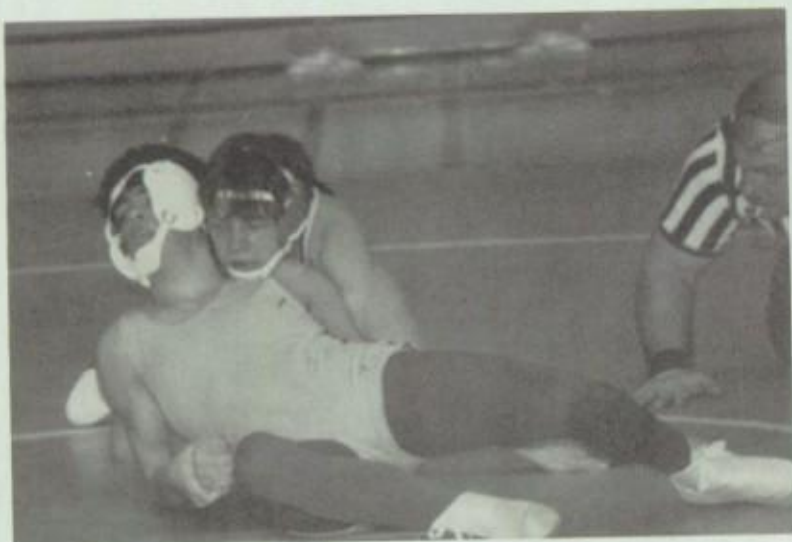

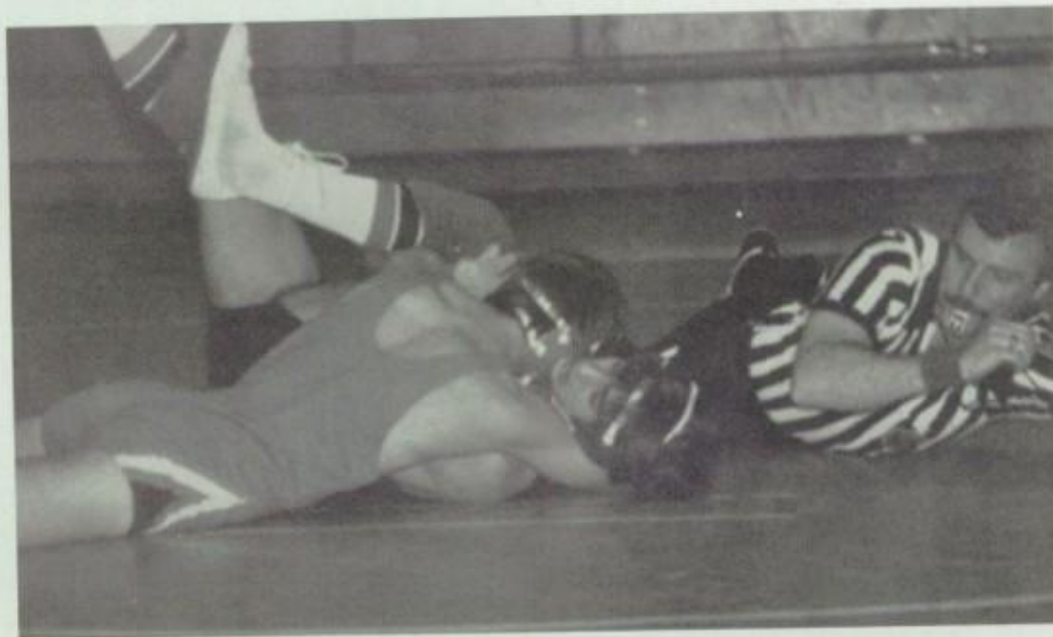

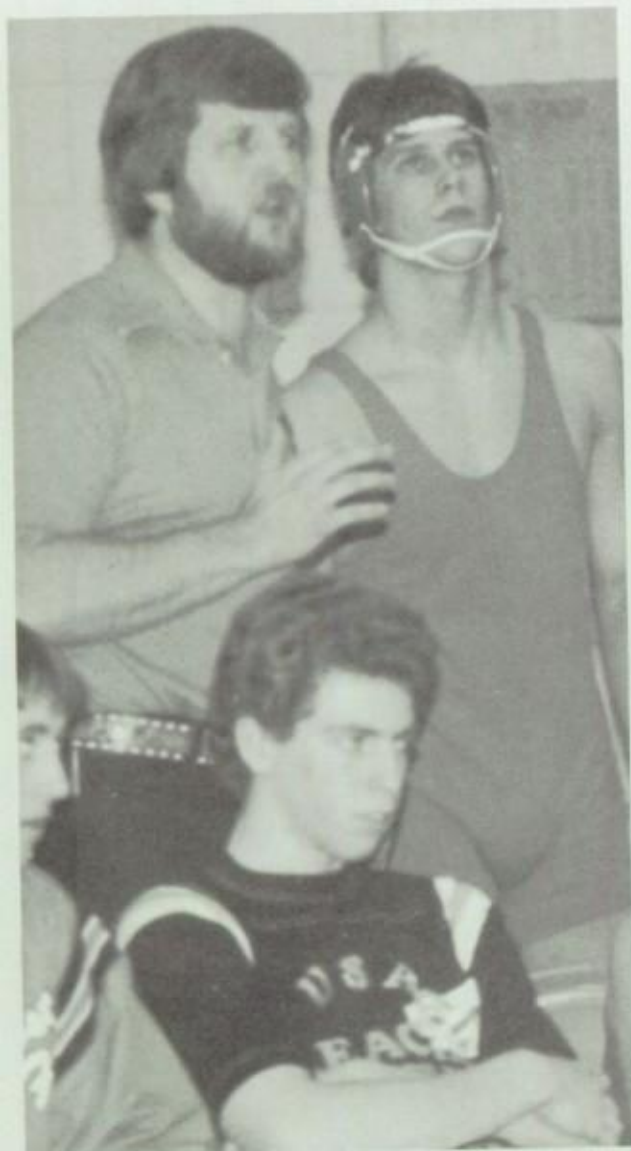

WRESTLERS SEND FOUR

Many JV team members wrestled at the varsity level, gaining valuable experience. Under the expert coaching of Dick Menti, these young wrestlers learned fundamental skills.

Mat Maids kept home wrestling matches running smoothly by keeping things under control. They ran the clock, kept score and stat sheets, cleaned the mats, and ran any errands that were needed. These girls helped make the season successful.

1984 TROJAN VARSITY GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM SHINES AGAIN

With an overall record of 17-3, only losing to A-1 schools (Sandpoint twice and Ferris from Spokane once), the varsity girls' basketball team had a great year. The Trojans earned the IML title by finishing undefeated in league play with a record of 12-0. They were seeded first in the district tournament held at Lakeland High School and defeated Bonners Ferry and then Lakeland for the district championship.

Winning the district championship enabled the team to advance to state, which was held in Coeur d'Alene. They won their first two games, defeating Buhl and Weiser, then lost to Madison in the championship game 38-55. The one disappointment in 1984 was the resignation of Ron Worley from the head coaching position.

 JV Coach Mike Curtis

Beginning the season with shaky fundamentals and poor teamwork, the JV Trojans practiced hard and improved to become the first place team in the league. They ended the year with a 17-2 record. Two members from this junior varsity, coached by Mike Curtis, advanced to the varsity for tournament season.

JV GIRLS' BASKETBALL

FROSH GIRLS LOOK GOOD IN 1984

1984 frosh girls' basketball team learned many fundamentals. "They improved tremendously on man-to-man defense, shooting, and ball handling," said Coach Hayes. The team wrapped up their season with a balanced record of 7-7. As outstanding individuals, Cheri Sharp was the leading scorer with the average of 10 points plus, and Cindy Campbell had the greatest number of rebounds.

 Coach Larry Alexander

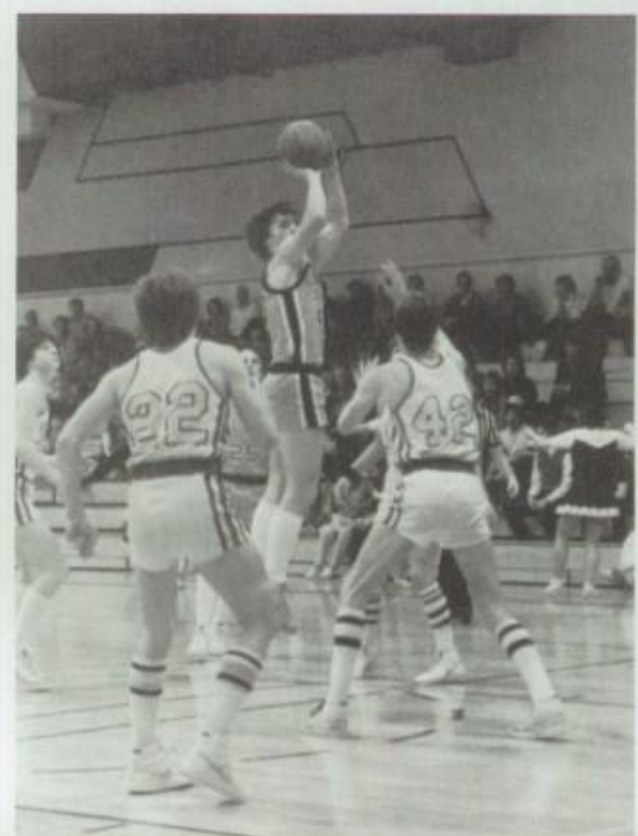

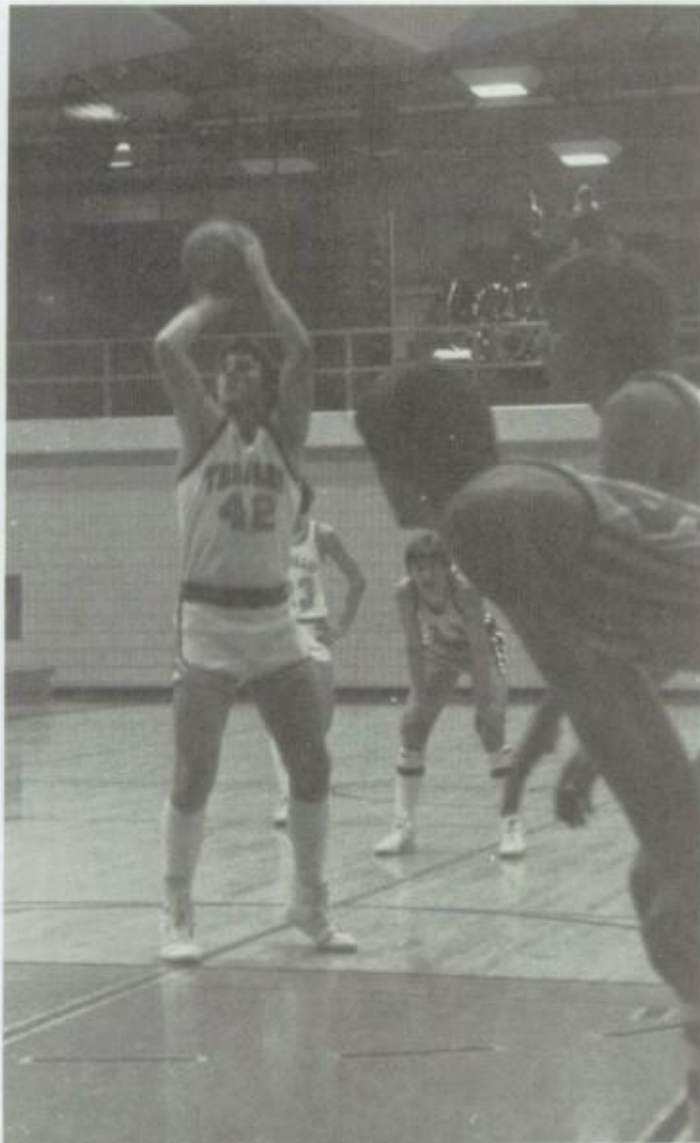

Trojan basketball players took some time to adjust to the new philosophy of Coach Larry Alexander. A 5 win-16 loss season demonstrated the difficulty in making a change in playing styles. The 1983-84 group was young and inexperienced, and, at times, not cohesive on the court. However, deliberate set offense, highlighted by a barrage of 3-point shooters, triggered many comeback attempts. Season highlights were a trip to Boise, during Christmas vacation, to participate in the "Holiday Classic" and a win over Kellogg—the first time in many years.

JV TROJAN HOOPSTERS

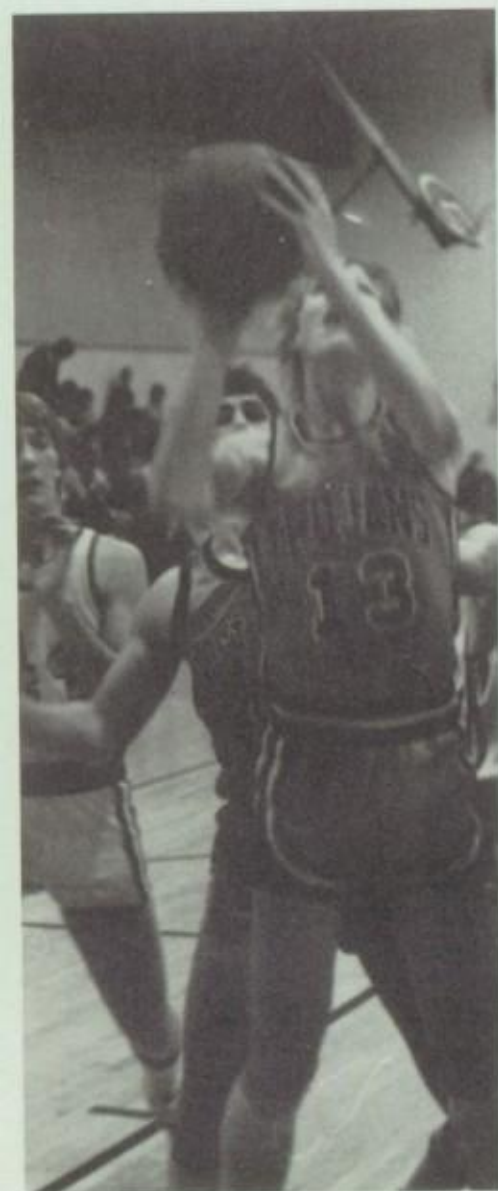

New junior varsity coach Paul Kunz guided his team through a learning season. The team traveled a tough road on the way to a 3 win-15 loss season. Good fundamental basketball skills were stressed throughout the year.

The JV players described their season as "fun and a learning experience." The team was quite tall, having two 6'6" giants. Speedy and hustling guards sparked the fast-break offense and trapping defense. Only two serious injuries occurred at the end of the year: A.J. Lehman twisted his knee, and Steve Jones broke his ankle in the last game.

FROSH BOYS LEARN FUNDAMENTALS

Even though the frosh boys' basketball team had a losing season, they did improve their fundamentals and their ball handling. Coach Pettoello guided these freshmen through an enjoyable year. Outstanding individual Marvin Curtis was the lead scorer with 10 plus points per game; he was also the leading rebounder.

1984 BOYS' TRACK

SOARS to SUCCESS

Boys' track had a very competitive season. All members competed in district competition; 10 advanced to the state meet where six PFHS competitors received medals. Tony Nagle won the state championship in the 100 m. dash. Joe Tofflemire threw for 2nd in shot put. Other medal winners were Joe Tofflemire in discus, Tony Nagle in the 200 m. dash, James Edison in the high jump, and Eric Tibesar in shotput. The relay, consisting of Tofflemire, Nagle, Reasor, and Sheldon, placed 3rd. Posts Falls boys finished 6th—six places ahead of any other school in the IML.

FROSH TRACK TEAM

Frosh track team had a good season in 1984. On the girls' track team, Kelli Prelwitz finished 1st in the 100 yard dash at the Wallace meet. At the end of the season, Debbi Tierney won first place in both the shot and the discus at district competition. Julie Fowler took second place in the district for the hurdles, and the 1600 m. relay team (Lia Kohles, Sandra Saathoff, Kris Brooks, and Julie Fowler) also placed second.

For the boys, Paul Toffelmire threw the discus 146'2" for a new school record for the freshmen, and Joe Willoughby placed first in the hurdles at the district meet in Coeur D'Alene.

TROJAN GIRLS HAVE A

An enthusiastic girls' track team had spirit and strove for success. Seven girls competed at state: Dawn Ledbetter, Michele Diteman, Jamie Floch, Valda Vitolins, Tami Johnson, Natalie Thompson, and Tracy Goetz. Michele Diteman ran fourth in the 800 m. run, and Dawn Ledbetter finished sixth in the 100 m. hurdles; the relay team, which consisted of Michele Diteman, Tracy Goetz, Natalie Thompson, and Valda Vitolins, received sixth in the 1600 m. relay.

ORGANIZATIONS

ASB RAISES FUNDS for WORLEY BABY

1983-1984 brought a revival of old traditions and the hopeful beginning of new ones for the Student Council. Post Falls students once again saw Trojan graduates grace our school hall and homecoming floats parade around town and heard the Trojan victory bell in the fall after every football score. The council began a new tradition of exchange Student Council days with neighboring schools—last year Lakeland participated. The Student Council also donated $200.00 from a basketball benefit to the treatment fund for Mr. Worley's baby.

YEARBOOK STRIVES TO MAKE DEADLINE

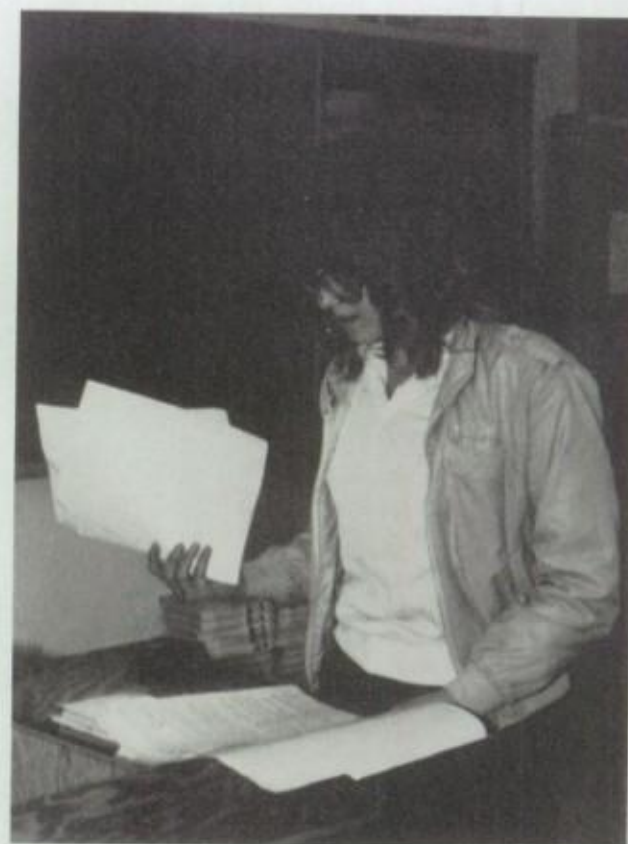

One accomplishment for the 1984 yearbook class was meeting the large 52 page deadline in April. This success made possible the planned improvements—the bigger 8½ by 11 size and an increase of 20 pages at cost of $10,000. To raise this sum the staff sold yearbooks, solicited advertising from the business community, and sponsored the senior/faculty basketball game. After funds were available, the staff members took photographs, developed film, printed pictures, drew page layouts, and wrote copy. Their final step was proofreading and preparing the pages for mailing.

Journalism this year did well giving the student body the TROJAN TIMES filled with interesting and exciting stories on sports, clubs, and other school activities. Putting out a paper involved many hours of work gathering information, writing and typing stories, planning headlines, arranging the pages, and stapling the finished product. Each finished product from first semester was submitted to competition.

Trojanettes crowned a long but successful year by placing first in floor show at the Trojanette Invitational. In addition the five top drill down places were won by Trojanettes, led by winner Sylvia Coffee.

During the year the drill team performed at football and basketball halftimes and executed hand routines during volleyball games and wrestling matches.

February and March saw the Trojanettes presenting floor shows at girls' district and state tournaments, and a select group did their jazz routine "(We Dance) So Close to the Fire" for the girls' NJCCAA Regional tournament held at NIC.

Tina Hamilton, Trojanette Captain, traveled to Mountain Home in January to compete in the Miss Drill Team Idaho Pageant.

Together the drill team and flag team sponsored the Jingle Bell Rock Christmas dance and performed at Fall and Winter Homecomings. In Wenatchee's 1983 Apple Blossom Parade the drill team and flag team placed second, and as part of the PFHS marching unit they won the first place trophy at the 1983 U of I Homecoming Parade.

CHORALE/TROUBADORS

Chorale achieved many successes during 1983-84. They presented their 6th annual 'Old Songs' dinner concert, with a buffet catered by the Longhorn Restaurant, plus Christmas and spring concerts. Also in the spring they earned an overall one rating at large group contest. This group finished the year by singing for the 1984 graduation ceremonies. The highlight of their year was the production of the musical "Shes at Sea" performed for the student body and the community.

Troubadors had a productive year, performing at all the vocal music concerts, plus singing at Lloyd Seller's funeral and honoring mothers at the Presbyterian Church on Mothers' Day. They also delivered singing Valentines around the high school and presented their own assembly to encourage new members.

Ski Club organized four all-day ski trips: Lookout Pass, Silverhorn, 49° North, and Canada's Red Mountain. Two of these facilities provided an hour of lessons for each level of skier. These fun filled days made a successful and memorable year for the new ski club and its advisors Mr. Curtis, Mrs. Patano, Mrs. Martinson.

OEA STRIVES FOR BUSINESS SKILLS

The purpose of OEA is to give students an opportunity to obtain business skills.

Through the year, the organization raised money by selling Santa grams, bunny grams, St. Patty's grams, and licorice. The proceeds enabled them to go to the competition at N.I.C.

Post Falls' new stock market club, headed by Mr. Corbeill, met weekly to check the stock market news on the business page of the local newspaper. They learned how to buy and sell stocks and manage funds by investing an original $100,000. Over a course of eight weeks they competed against other Idaho high schools to see who could earn the highest return.

BOWLING STRIKES PFHS

Another new club for PFHS in 1983-84 was the bowling club. The members met each Wednesday after school to practice their skills. In tournaments with other schools, which were scheduled on Sundays, the bowlers had a good time and formed new friendships.

As part of our goal "to reach the top" Post Falls High School formed several organizations. Ski Club, Pep Club, Bowling Club, Stock Market Club, and Challengers.

These new clubs along with some established groups achieved successes. At one time during the year Brenda Bryan and Brian Gehlen were leading the state in stock market investments. Speech and Debate had a team which placed 5th at state; and French Club earned enough money to buy a computer.

In the spring the drill team received 1st place at the Trojanette Invitational, while the flag team received best inspection, and at large group competition chorale received a rating of one.

The year was also outstanding for sports, with the addition of cross country; the girls' basketball team also earned 2nd in the state, and Tony Nagle earned 1st place in the 100 yd. dash at the state track meet. Two football standouts Rollin Putzier and Joe Tofflemire each received full ride scholarships to Pac-10 schools, and Dan Sheldon rushed for over 1,000 yards.
